

The Princeton Environmental Institute presents:

Gidon Bromberg

Director, EcoPeace/Friends of the Earth Middle East
2007 Yale World Fellow

Thursday, December 6th @ Frist 302 • 12 - 1:30 p.m.

Solving Intractable Problems: Lessons learned from environmental peacemaking efforts in the Middle East

Gidon Bromberg is known for innovative methods of regional cooperation in pursuit of environmental goals. His community peace building program, “Good Water Neighbors,” among Israelis, Palestinians and Jordanians is used as a successful model for programs in conflict areas around the world.