Ira W. DeCamp Professor of Bioethics, Center for Human Values
B. Phil., University of Oxford, 1971

Research Interests

Peter Singer works in ethics, with a focus on applied ethics. He has written extensively on ethical issues relating to the treatment of animals. His Animal Liberation, first published in 1975, is often credited with starting the modern animal movement. He has written about global ethical issues, and his book One World (2002) includes a discussion of ethical issues relating to climate change. He has also published extensively in bioethics. In 2005 Time magazine named him one of the world's 100 most influential people.
