Princeton University
Department of Public Safety

Campus Safety Alert - Update

This notice is to advise you of an incident that concerns the University community

Date: Tuesday, November 4, 2008

Incident: Missing Undergraduate Wei Ho Located

The Department of Public Safety is updating community members that missing student Wei Ho ’09 has been found safe and unharmed in San Francisco.

On the afternoon of Friday, October 31, 2008, Wei Ho was reported missing to the Department of Public Safety. Since that time, DPS officers and University administrators worked around the clock investigating Ho's whereabouts. Over the weekend, officers and investigators developed information that Ho likely was in the San Francisco, Calif., area. At about noon today, the San Francisco police, with information provided by DPS, located Ho.

There was no foul play involved in this case and Ho’s parents are now with him in San Francisco.

The Federal Clery Act requires that universities with a campus public safety agency must, in a manner that is timely and will aid in the prevention of similar crimes, report to the campus community crimes that fall into certain categories and that are considered by the university to represent a continuing threat to the campus community. The Department of Public Safety refers to these notices as "Campus Safety Alerts." This Campus Safety Alert is issued according to this requirement.